The CCRN is an online network that is a central hub for co-operative research, including:

- ◆ News
- ◆ Co-op research library (over 1350 publications – see our video tutorial for the library)
- ◆ Research profiles
- ◆ Events calendar
- ◆ Research priorities and ideas

Background:

Over 100 researchers, students and practitioners contributed to the development of this network, which was coordinated by the Canadian Co-operative Association and the Conseil canadien de la coopération et de la mutualité and funded by the Rural and Co-operatives Secretariat.

Don't miss another event or publication - sign up to be notified of research news and opportunities!

Simply enter your email on the main site and be notified (at an interval of your choosing – such as weekly, daily, etc) the news happening throughout the co-op research community. See the “Updates via email” option on the right column of the main page to enter your email and click “follow”: <http://ccnrsrc.wordpress.com/>

Post your profile so others can know you and connect with you!

You can post your profile as a researcher, professor, student or practitioner interested in research (a short form is provided on the site). The CCRN Management Committee hopes you will join us in this mapping exercise to capture the research and methodology expertise of researchers in the co-op community. Submit your profile today here:

<https://ccnrsrc.wordpress.com/researcher-profiles/>

Share your news/events/opportunities!

You can share news about conferences, funding opportunities, partnership opportunities or anything else of interest to the research/practitioner community and it will be posted to the website. Submit news today and as frequently as you want:

<http://ccnrsrc.wordpress.com/researcher-profiles/>

Submit your publications and reports to be added to the research library!

Any report on co-ops in Canada or beyond (US and international friends are invited to submit as well) should be included in the library so practitioners/researchers/students can read your work. Citations, links or pdfs can be submitted here: <http://ccnrsrc.wordpress.com/research-library/#suggest-resource>. View the library to see if your publications are already there and let us know what we missed: <https://www.zotero.org/groups/ccrn-rcrc/items>
